Banishing/Invoking Ritual of the Pentagram

Pause this Paxis to perform the fire breath and any Raja Yoga to center yourself. Once ready press play

Grand Theurgic Invocation Ritual

The Grand Invocation is a deepening revelation of a single divine continuum—unfolding within the sacred “shape” of the eternally unified Divine Parent (Macrocosm) and the Child within the Egg (Microcosm). Each Name invoked is not separate from the one before it, but rather nested within it—an emanational cascade of divine self-disclosure.

Macrocosmic Alignment

First, the great Macrocosm is summoned forth—arising from pure abstraction into full and intimate embodiment.

'Ehye 'ăšer 'Ehye

Imagine a brilliant white light above the head entering the body with every breath in and radiating out with every breath out. Focus on non-duality, Cosmos and Self as one Field

Resonate divine name: Ehye: eeeeeeehhhhhhheeeeeeyyyyyyaaaaaaa

YHVH

Concentrate on the "proximity" and beginningless “origin” which will by its own nature centralize within your awareness. It may be of benefit in the beginning to allow this center to be concentrated on the position of the third eye. While you concentrate, feel it both going deeper and pushing out a field infinitely in all directions.

Resonate divine name: Yehova - yyyyyyyeeeeeehhhhhhhooooooooovvvvvvaaaaaaa

Elohim

When resonating Elohim you envision an "infinite spherical enclosure," the womb of space as a spherical boundary expanding infinitely outward. As it expands, imagine a "fertile" potency radiating back from every point along its perimeter to the very center of being, ripe with potential.

Resonate divine name: Elohim - eeeeeeeIIIIIIloooooohhhhhhiiiiiiiiimmmmmmm

Now focusing on the principles of YHVH as the center of being that is contracting pushing the space of awareness focus on this energy fusing with the infinite perimeter of the spherical boundary of the void amplifying their ecstatic relationship bringing divine energy into the relationship rising to the point of manifestation within their infinite embrace.

Microcosmic Alignment

Hecate

A digital artwork depicting the Egyptian goddesses Isis and Nephthys. They are shown as a single figure with two faces, wearing a golden crown and a long, flowing white dress. They hold a flaming torch in their right hand. Two Anubis dogs, also with two faces, stand at their feet. The background is dark, and the figures are illuminated by a bright, circular light behind their heads.

Resonate divine name: Hecate - hhhhhhheeeeeeeccccccaaaaaatTTTTTeeeeeee

Helios

As you resonate the Divine Name Helios you want to enter into the body of light and merge your consciousness with the objective solar nature of the self. This is a direct identification with the Solar Logos, the biophotonic emission from every DNA nucleus. Here the theurgist becomes the body of light and experiences “from it.” You are the solar seed at the center of the being.

Resonate divine name: Helios - hhhhhhheeeeeeeIIIIIIIIIIIOOOOOOSSSSSS

Protogonos

Invoking Protogonos, visualize your body of light—your conscious awareness—expanding and ascending. Simultaneously, feel your divine double, your personal daemon, your infinite eternal self, descending from every point of your spherical boundary, merging your total objective self with your direct conscious awareness.

Resonate divine name: Protogonos -

Closing the Ritual

This may be performed immediately after a general Banishing or Invocation Ritual of the Pentagram, or reserved for the conclusion of a larger working as its final act.

This final, closing Resonate Divine Name — 'Ehye 'āšer 'Ehye — is the same utterance that opened the rite, the Alpha and Omega of the working. It is the Name of pure self-identity in the state of ecstatic non-duality, the eternal “I Am That I Am” which has silently undergirded the entire ritual arc from its inception. Spoken here at the conclusion, it serves as the great re-collection: drawing every force, every image, every invoked presence back into the indivisible simplicity of the One.

Final Pronouncement: "For I am the four elements crowned by a fifth, the spirit, the Aether, the infinite eternal self. I align myself, and the forces of my inner nature, with the Cosmos, the eternal being, for I am one, our Divine Infinite Being".

Resonate divine name: Ehye: Eeeeeeehhhhhhheeeeeeyyyyyyaaaaaaa

Rules for Building the Ritual Technology for performance.

The following sets are not exhaustive to all of the combinations possible for building your ritual framework within the Theurgic Ritual of the Pentagram. These will give you the quick reference to copy into your journal or print out. More involved and varied rituals can be built with our theurgic ritual software for initiates that are members of our Mystery tradition at

1. Elemental Framework

The five elements form the primary structure: Fire → Water → Air → Earth → Spirit.

2. Opening Gates

- Depending on the work, any of the five gates may be primary excluding the others depending on structure.
- If more than one gate is opened, they must always follow the elemental hierarchy above.

3. Order within a Gate

Once a gate is opened, invocations proceed in this sequence:

Inner Planets:
	Sun	Mercury	Venus	Moon	Mars
Outer Planets:
	Jupiter	Saturn	Uranus	Neptune	Pluto
Zodiacal Presences: in the order of
	Cardinal	Fixed	Mutable

4. Multiple Gates

- All planets and zodiacal presences within one gate are invoked before moving to the next.
- If a second or third gate is required, it follows in proper elemental succession (ie. Fire before Water, Air before Earth, Earth before Spirit etc.).

Invoking Moon Planetary Concentration

Perform the concentrated amplification of the Moon, holding it within your palms. In the imaginal body, behold it at its full immensity—vast as if you yourself were greater than the solar system. Let its force permeate the entire ritual space, filling it with both its transconscious and physical presence. Take three deep, deliberate breaths before continuing.

Invoke the Divine Intelligence of Moon

Staying still and centralized within the ritual space, focusing on the infinite center of being and the spherical self boundary as the total immortal and infinite self, make the gesture of the Moon. Hold for one to three full breaths then make the pronouncement and resonate the Divine Name of the Planetary Intelligence.

Invoking Neptune Planetary Concentration

Perform the concentrated amplification of the Neptune, holding it within your palms. In the imaginal body, behold it at its full immensity—vast as if you yourself were greater than the solar system. Let its force permeate the entire ritual space, filling it with both its transconscious and physical presence. Take three deep, deliberate breaths before continuing.

Invoke the Divine Intelligence of Neptune

Staying still and centralized within the ritual space, focusing on the infinite center of being and the spherical self boundary as the total immortal and infinite self, make the gesture of Neptune. Hold for one to three full breaths then make the pronouncement and resonate the Divine Name of the Planetary Intelligence.

- Pronouncement: "In nomine Neptuni, dominator marium et visionum,"
- Phonetics: "In noh-mee-nay Nep-too-nee, doh-mee-nah-tor mah-ree-oom et vee-see-oh-noom,"

Invoking Pluto Planetary Concentration

Perform the concentrated amplification of Pluto, holding it within your palms. In the imaginal body, behold it at its full immensity—vast as if you yourself were greater than the solar system. Let its force permeate the entire ritual space, filling it with both its transconscious and physical presence. Take three deep, deliberate breaths before continuing.
